

HOME GROWN EDUCATION: A STATISTICAL PERSPECTIVE ON HOMESCHOOLING TRENDS AND OUTCOMES

OBJECTIVE

Provide statistical data on trends, academic and social outcomes of homeschooling in the U.S.

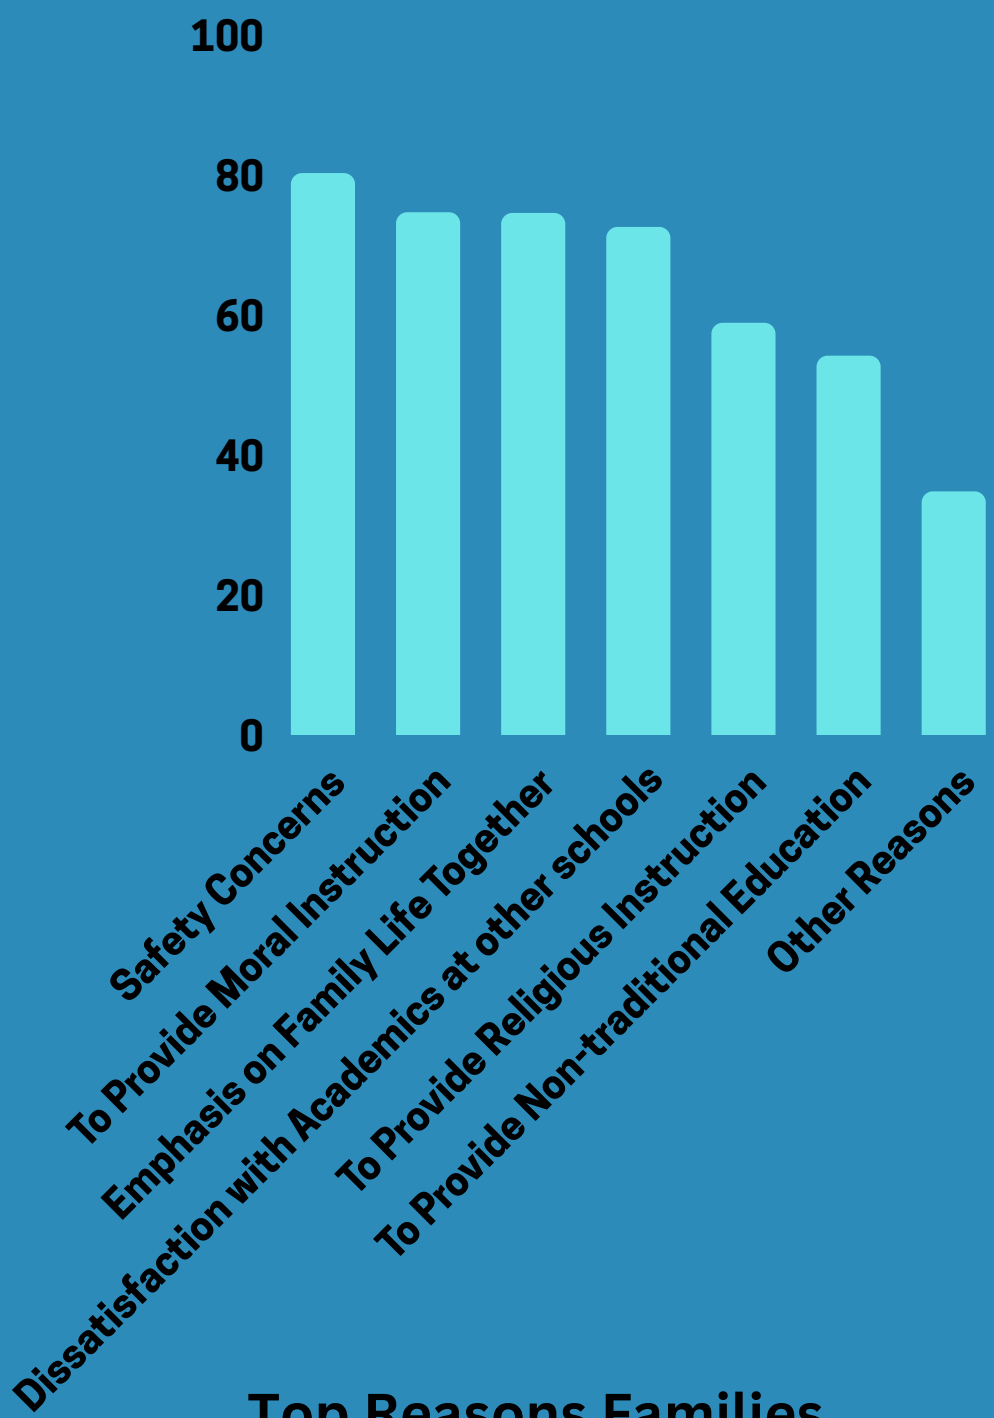

Current U.S. Schooling Options Pursued By Percentages

RESULTS/FINDINGS

Rate of Homeschool Growth vs. Public & Private School

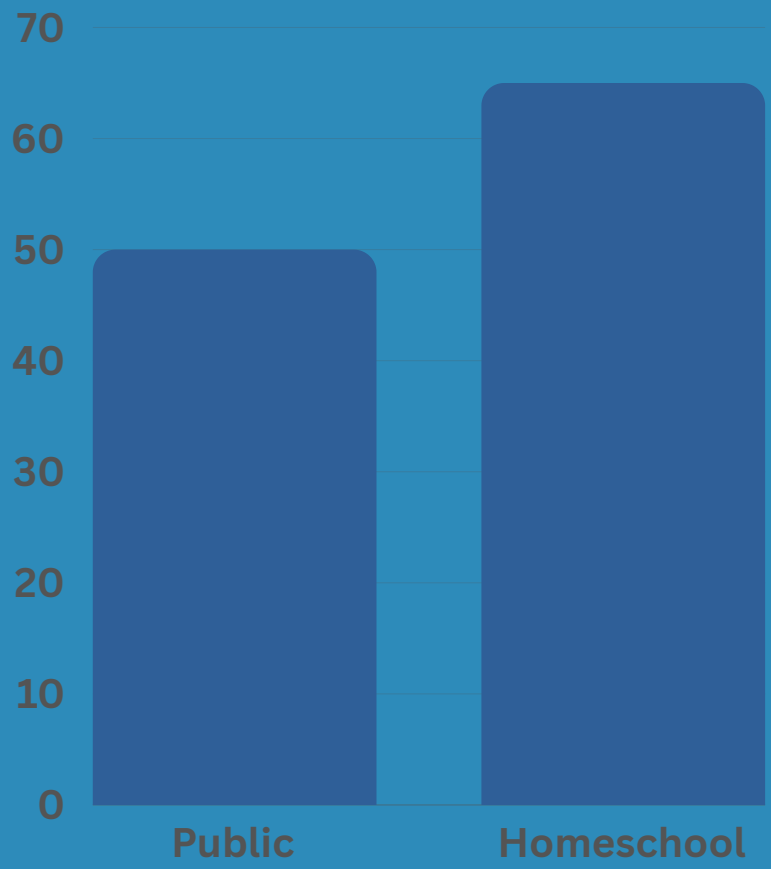

Top Reasons Families Homeschool

Homeschooling: system of education where parents educate their children at home instead of at a conventional school.

College Graduation Rates

Percentile Avg. on Standardized Testing Scores

CONCLUSION

Homeschooling is becoming more popular in the U.S. and positive outcomes may cause this schooling option to increase even more in the future.

% Participation in Cultural Activities

Homeschoolers are often thought to lack socialization or opportunities to mix socially. These graphs show some of the social interaction opportunities pursued by homeschool families as compared to public schoolers.

% Participation in Family Activities

